

What Your Child Is Learning This Week

Sunday February 7, 2010

Helping Them Remember....

Remind your children that when they do go to church, they are in God's house, and that is why we need to be respectful and on our best behavior. You can tell them that God is everywhere, but God is in a church in a special way. Church is God's house, and since we are members of God's family, we gather in church to pray together. We try to make our churches beautiful because God is there and God is so wonderful.

How Going to Mass Can Make Your Child's Life Better

Research studies show that Mass has physical, emotional and intellectual benefits for our children. Taking kids to church each week will:

- Provide them with a solid sense of right and wrong
- Significantly reduce their likelihood of using drugs, alcohol & tobacco
- Improve their attitude at school
- Reduce rebellious tendencies
- Make them less likely to suffer from depression
- Increase their average life expectancy by 8 years
- Dramatically lower their risk of suicide
- Reduce their risk of ever committing a crime

Did you know that you can take your young child up to Communion with you? Though they can't receive the bread and wine, walking up with you is a good way for them to see what happens. Children learn reverence for the Eucharist when they see how adults approach the altar. The priests or lay ministers of Communion may give the child a blessing, too.
