

What Your Child Is Learning
This Week

October 23, 2011

This week we learned about creation.
God made all things. He is the Creator.

Helping Them Remember....

"In the beginning, God created heaven and the earth..."

Today we learned about the 7 days of creation.

Today we made sunflowers,
just one of the beautiful things God created!

*tonight at bedtime prayers remember to thank God for creating the world and our favorite things in it.

*Autumn is such a beautiful season, take a walk and together point out the many beautiful and spectacular things God created.

*Pick up two leaves off the ground; discuss how they are alike and different. Point out to your child that God created people and each one of us is very different and special, yet very much a like. Remind your child to Thank God for creating us and making us members of his family.

*When you tuck your child in each night ask your child to name some of the things he/she saw today that we should be thankful for.

The Difference Faith Makes...

God speaks to us through our senses.

As adults, our lives are busy with work, families and other responsibilities. Do we take opportunities to thank God for all he has created? Young children base their understanding of the world on the 5 senses.
This week try to look at our world like a preschooler and take special time to thank God for the many things WE experience through our senses.

Here are a few to consider.

Sight: The beauty of Autumn trees and leaves, seeing those we love after a difficult day

Smell: the sweet smell of our child after a bath, popcorn, rain, flowers

Touch: hugs, holding hands, soft pillows,

Hear: beautiful music, wind, giggling children

Taste: baking cookies, chocolate

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 6TH
